Key rating drivers, as strengths and constraints, are provided below.

Strengths

- Notable increase in sales revenues and considerable share of export revenues among total sales in FY2022
- EBITDA generation capacity supported by unit price and sales volume growth in FY2022
- Various product range and wide operational area improving operating profit margin despite the high level of operating expenses
- Maintaining favourable profitability indicators through the analysed years despite the pressured margins in 9M2023
- Low level of doubtful receivables contributing asset quality
- Upward trend in net working capital and FFO level facilitating liquidity management
- Long-lasting track record dating back to 1967 along with high compliance with international quality standards and supporting sustainability projects
- Noteworthy market share of the Company's brands in Turkish market via brand reputation

 Remarkable increase in financial leverage underpinned by net debt to EBITDA multiplier in FY2022 and weak interest coverage status in 9M2023

Constraints

- Seasonality in production activities as main production is based on fresh fruits and vegetables resulting risks such as climatic conditions, drought, flood and disease
- Negative level of CFO and FOCF following the investment period in FY2022 though the improvement seen in 9M2023
- Long cash conversion cycle as a nature of the business
- Leading economic indicators signal global economic slowdown as quantitative tightening actions aim to restrict consumption growth and achieve a softlanding in the domestic side

Considering the aforementioned points, the Company's the Long-Term National Issuer Credit Rating has been revised from "AA+ (tr)" to "AA (tr)". The competitive advantage obtained through its long-lasting presence in the sector, liquidity position, production and export power, competition and market efficiency in the inter/national market as well as augmenting indebtedness level due to investments, leverage profile, political tensions and other global downsides have been evaluated as important indicators for the stability of the ratings and the outlooks for Long-Term and Short-Term National Issuer Credit Ratings are determined as "Stable". The Company's equity level, fluctuations of the exchange rates, debt maturity and its level, cash flow and liquidity level, EBITDA margin and net profit indicators are the prior issues to be followed by JCR Eurasia Rating in the upcoming period. The macroeconomic indicators at national and international markets, as well as market conditions and legal frame about the sector will be continued to be monitored as well.
